SUNDAY BULLETIN DEAD

A Strong Effort to Keep the Daily Alive With Wind.

As forecasted in Saturday morning's Advertiser the Sunday Bulletin, with yesterday's issue, died of inanition. The publishers stated that the paper did not pay. It is said that the bona fide advertising of the sheet did not yield more than $15 per week and that the sales, though larger than those of the Daily Bulletin, brought in less than half what it cost to produce the paper.

Editor Advertiser:—Permit me to hand you a few interesting extracts with divers comments:

The Republican has now reached a paying basis and its future is assured. From deathbed statement of the late Honolulu Republican.

The Volcano completely fills the Sunday field in this city and has long since passed the stage of experiment.—Sunday Volcano, three weeks before its collapse.

Every department of the Bulletin Publishing Co. is now and for the last three years has been conducted on a dividend paying basis.—Bulletin.

The last extract will be news to the employees whose salaries have lately been cut down, to the workmen who have been "stood off" in the matter of wages, to the San Francisco paper dealers, and to other creditors whom circumstances have compelled to hustle for a morsel on account.

SUMMER BOARDER.

DEATH OF ETHEL GAY.

Funeral Services Held Yesterday at St. Andrew's Cathedral.

The funeral of Miss Ethel Gay, who died Saturday, was held yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's cathedral. Miss Gay had been staying with her sister, Mrs. Albert Harris, on Nuuanu avenue, and while not in the best of health, it has only been within the past month that her friends began to worry because of her condition. Spinal meningitis set in, and despite the best medical care, death came early Saturday morning. The deceased was the daughter of the late James W. Gay of Waiakua, and a young lady of much promise. She was but 29 years of age. Her early education was received in Honolulu, after which she went to San Francisco for a special course in music, returning here last May. She leaves, besides many sorrowing friends, three sisters and three brothers: Mrs. Alice Harris, Freda and Helen, Llewellyn, Eric and Arthur.

Real Estate Without Bidders.

Real estate was not wanted at auction Saturday, seemingly, for three sales advertised by Morgan failed to come off. There were two mortgage sales of small properties, but owing to the failure of any offerings for the pieces, which are outlying lands, these were postponed. In the case of the lot on Prospect street, adjoining the residence of H. M. Dow at the corner of Backfield, there were no bidders. The piece was offered by the auctioneers, but there was not a single bid and the lot was withdrawn for later offering.

The regimental shoot and sham battle of the National Guard will probably be held this year on the last Sunday of next month.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

C. M. Cooke's fine mountain villa at Luakaha has been completed.

Rev. W. M. Kincaid will leave in the Alameda for an extended vacation in the States. Rev. J. P. Erdman will have charge of Central Union Church during his absence.

August Herring and wife, each charged in separate complaints with assault with a weapon, were arraigned in the police court Saturday morning, but their cases were continued until tomorrow morning.

The Right Rev. Bishop Restarick and family may be expected here August 8th; they have already left San Diego. On arriving here the probability is they will stay at the hotel for a time, as did Bishop Nichols.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Violet Kinooe Kahaleuluhe, daughter of Mrs. Maria Bell-Kahale, to Carl Anton George Maertens, to take place on Wednesday, July 30th, at high noon, in St. Andrew's cathedral.

A meeting of the Builders and Traders' Exchange will be held July 29th. At that time there will be a discussion of the labor situation in the Territory, and the building laws of the islands, and also the appointment of a committee to arrange for the reception of the Senatorial commission.

The small yachts had an interesting run yesterday from Pearl Harbor. They went down Saturday and returned yesterday afternoon. There were only six yachts which finished, they coming in in the following order: Marlini, Wiki-Wiki, Princess, Pirate, Columbia and Vi-ke. The run up was made in good time.

Miss A. L. Sheridan and Miss G. Sheridan of San Francisco arrived in the Alameda yesterday to spend a couple of weeks in Honolulu. Both young ladies visited in Honolulu about three years ago, and so thoroughly enjoyed the trip then that Hawaii was included in the itinerary of their present tour. They are guests of the Hawaiian Hotel.

A. D. Katz of Salt Lake City, accompanied by his bride, arrived in the Alameda yesterday and are guests at the Hawaiian Hotel. Mr. Katz is one of the most prominent of the young Republicans of Salt Lake City. He is in the insurance business, and upon his return will probably locate at Boise, Idaho. Mr. Katz is a brother-in-law of Governor Wells of Utah. The visitors will return to the coast in the Sierra.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Walter Renton were held Saturday at the home of his father at Ewa. The service was conducted by Rev. W. W. Kincaid, and was attended by people from Honolulu and the plantations. Interment was made at Nuuanu Cemetery in this city, where a short service was also held. A trio composed of Mrs. C. B. Damon, Mrs. J. T. McDonald and A. B. Ingalls, sang at the cemetery.

"Kawakaeakua" Mineral Water.

The Kinaiu brought 80 cases of the celebrated Volcano Mineral Water from Puna last Saturday. This is the first large shipment to Honolulu. Mr. Cecil Brown has just returned from the springs and has perfected arrangements with Mr. Ryeroff of the Fountain Soda Works of this city to have this mineral water bottled and delivered in the city. In the announcement published elsewhere the government analysis made by E. C. Shorey is given. For kidney troubles there is no better water in the market. Orders sent to Main 270 will be promptly filled.

Commissioner Brown's Tour.

J. K. Brown, United States Commissioner of Immigration at Honolulu, leaves in September for an extended visit in the States. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Brown. He will go to his old home and will also report at Washington and then after making a short stay in New York, will return to the islands late in the fall.

A SAN FRANCISCO PHYSICIAN

Uses Herpicide Successfully in Treating Syphilis of the Beard.

He says: "I recently treated a case of syphilis (similar to 'barber's itch') of the lower lip, with Newbro's Herpicide. There was an extensive loss of beard with inflammation extending well down on the chin. The result of the application of Herpicide was most gratifying. The loss of beard ceased and a new growth of hair is now taking place over the once inflamed area."

(Signed):

"MELVILLE E. O'NEILL, M. D.,
"845 Howard St.,
"San Francisco, Cal."

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and causes the hair to grow abundantly.

MONDAY, JULY 21ST.

Grand Bargain Sale of

Elegant High-Price Lace Curtains

Beginning Monday, July 21st

Prices Reduced Far Below Cost

These curtains are not too elegant for Honolulu people, but the prices are evidently too high. They are of the most exquisite patterns and designs, all directly imported from Switzerland. Many have admired them, but when it came to paying $22.00 for a pair of curtains, they were not wanted. On the mainland regular prices could easily be gotten for them—however that's not here. We are going to dispose of these curtains at an enormous sacrifice in price and offer you this opportunity. It's a chance to have curtains worthy of the costliest mansion at ordinary curtain prices. Come early and don't miss the chance.

Gunn Sectional Book-Cases

The sectional bookcase has taken the place of the old style bookcases everywhere, but in buying, the purchaser must bear in mind that there are many different makes in the market, all of more or less merit. It will pay you to look carefully at the different features, as some, while very attractive in appearance, have weak points in their construction and are to be avoided. The "Gunn" system is recognized as the highest stage of perfection and will bear any inspection. We are always pleased to show them.
